

At-Home Ballet-Themed Treasure Hunt!

Print and cut out the clues, hide 4-14 when your little dancer is not looking and fill in their name (1) and what you are proud of/ what they deserve a big well done for (14). Their prize can be anything you want! Sit them at the table and read these first 3 together:

Hello _____!
There's a little surprise hidden somewhere in your house for you! Shall we go on a hunt?

We have hidden some clues to help you find it! I want to do some dancing
as we look together.

3.

The first one is in something cold with lots of yummy food in! Let's stomp our feet all the way there!

Hide this one in the fridge:

You got it!
The next one is being looked after by your favourite teddy. Can you show me some soldier marches with really high knees?

Hide this one in their favourite cuddly toy's arms:

5.

Great marching!
What spins round and round and washes your clothes? When you find it,
can you do a spin?

Hide this one in the washing machine:

Great job!
tip-toes to where the letters come in, and see what is hiding there...?

Hide this one in the letter box:

7.

You are doing so well!
Where do you brush your teeth? Can you gallop like a horse all the way there?

This one can go in a tooth brush holder, etc

Wow, you are so clever!
Now, what do you put on your feet before going outside? I think something may be there!

Hide this one in their favourite/current shoes!

Boo! You got me!
Can you show me your big bunny jumps to where you
watch your favourite films?

Hide this one in between some DVDs, or behind a sofa cushion:

10.

What a big jump you have!
Can you show me your good toes and your naughty toes? Then close your eyes...

Hide this one in your pocket, put it in their hands once they have done the action and closed their eyes:

11.

Here I am!! They were amazing. Now, rub-a-dub-dub! Shall we go check the bathtub? Can you do an arabesque holding onto it?

Hide this one in the bath:

12.

Hooray! Well done. We are getting close now! Can you run to where your toys are kept?

Hide this one in their toy box/shelves/etc:

I am your very last clue!!
Where do you snuggle up and go to sleep? I'll bet
that's where your surprise will be...

Put the present on their bed. Try to keep the door closed so they get a big reveal! Fill it in with whatever you like.

You did it!
Mummy and Daddy want to say a big well done for

_____!

Enjoy your surprise!

I hope you have lots of fun together!
